My dear Schlegel

The Bearer is the Son of M^r Ferrier the English Consul at Rotterdam He is attracted to Bonn by your Fame & is I believe desirous of availing Himself of your private Assistances as a Pupil in your House while He attends the Lectures in the University.. From my Regard & Respect for M^r Ferrier I should esteem any kindness that you could show his Son a Favour to myself.

I am happy in any Opportunity of recalling myself to your Memory, & of assuring You that I ~~retain~~ shall ever retain [2] of the warmest feelings of Attachment & Admiration to You towards You.

I suffered after a long Time after seeing You from extreme bad health but have for some Months recovered more perfectly than I could have hoped.

I wish I could hear something of your Oriental Studies & Researches

Alas from Auguste de Staël. –

Ever Y^{rs}

Mackintosh.
