1832.
My Dear M^{r} Schlegel
Your Mss followed the Announcement very slowly. As soon as I received it I made a Proposal through M^{r} Lockhart to Murray who in spite of more ~~one A~~ than one Application was very long before He answered me.
When the Answer came it required that a Sight of Your Mss ~~xxx~~ should be given for a short time to a Man of Letters chosen by M^{r} Murray To this I could not assert without obtaining your Approbation
In determining what You ought to do I request you to consider that this literary Counsellor of M^{r} Murray is not to sit in [2] Judgement on your Genius & Learning but to perform the mere gross Task of endeavouring to estimate how far the Sale of the Work would in the present State of the Taste & Temper of London on commercial Principles warrant a vile trader in Books to agree to your Terms in themselves certainly very moderate
Though I am regardful & even jealous of your Dignity I own that in this View of the Subject I should strongly incline to agree with Murrays Request. The Indian Question will not come on in Parliament till next Year –
I beg an earlier Answer than Murrays Delays allowed me to make to you
I am My Dear M^{r} S.
Yours very faithfully
Mackintosh
