[1] Dornburg 27 March 1799

Dear Sir

If not inconvenient to you, I propose doing myself the Pleasure of waiting on you on Friday morning about ten o'clock, &, if you will allow me, of staying dinner – I promise myself much satisfaction & improvement from the candid observations you were kind enough to offer, concerning my translation . I will bring the Corpus delicti with me. I beg you however earnestly not to suffer this Appointment in the least to interfere with any other Engagement, as my Time is wholly at your disposal – I should be sorry to sin in publica commoda –

Believe me to be very sincerely

Dear Sir

Your oblig'd & obed^t Serv^t

Joseph Charles Mellish
