Dear Sir.

I have desired Mess^r Parbury & Allen to forward a copy of the new edition of my Sanscrit Dictionary and hope it will please you better than the first – though it is far from what – you – or what I. should wish it to be.

I am sorry to find some expressions of mine in a letter to Bishop Turner have given you offence. I do not think they need have done so and at any rate nothing was further from my thoughts than [2] the purpose of disparaging the very meritorious labours of yourself and other Continental Scholars in Sanscrit Literature. I remain I can assure you –

Your sincere admirer.

HHWilson

To

Professor Schlegel.
