[1] 13 May 1826

My dear Sir

Circumstances having rendered it necessary to recall my son suddenly to England & his presence being indispensably requisite previous to my brother's departure for India whither he proceeds next month, I request you will send him with as little delay as possible. I reckon that he will be on his way within a few hours after this reaches Bonn Young Johnston, who must have come a few weeks later will take the opportunity of my son's Company & they will travel together The same circumstances will prevent his return to Bonn to resume his studies there I am much hurried & you will excuse the shortness of the letter & of the notice

I am ever Yours very obed^{ly}

HColebrooke

[2] My dear Sir.

I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your last letter & shall answer it more at length in a short time - as I find, considering the professional views which I have for my son, that he must be in England as I formerly mentioned to you as soon as he is sixteen years old which he will be next month & as I just now learn from M^r Colebrook that he has ordered his son to return immediately to England I avail myself of the opportunity which this circumstance will afford the two young men of travelling together to request that you will send Patrick off along with young Colebrook. M^r Colebrookes letter is just going to the [3] Port which prevents me from adding more at present than that I am dear Sir

yours very truthfully

Alex^r Johnston
