[1] 26th Jany 24

My dear Sir

This will be delivered to you by my son, whom I recommend to your kind care and protection. Having written to you by the post on the plan of study I am most desirous he should pursue, and understanding that I am not to seal a letter sent by a private hand, I refer you to that & to my future letters by the post.

If there is any point on which you wish me to enter more particularly, pray send me word by Mr Lassens on his return.

Yours very sinc^{ly}

HColebrooke
