[1] Dear Sir.

I hear with regret that you will probably leave Florence on Monday; the more as I am confined at home & am unable to pay my respect to Mad:<sup>e</sup> de Staël or You before your departure.

I have cut my leg by an accident & shall probably be a week in my Surgeon's hands.

May I take the liberty of requesting you to make my best respects & services to Mad:<sup>e</sup> de Staël & to express my gratitude for her obliging attentions, & my sense of [2] of the honor & advantage I have had in her acquaintance.

I beg also to present my services to the Duchess of Broglie & the Baron de Staël.

Allow me to regret the few occasions I have had of cultivating your valuable acquaintance, & to thank you very sincerely for the ready & kind assistance you gave me in my little work on the Niobe. may I be counted amongst your faithful servants as I am [3] amongst those who know the esteem & respect due to your talent & acquirements.

I take the liberty of adding my address in England & if I could at any time be of use to <sup>serve</sup> you, I should feel myself much flattered by your making use of it.

If any copies of my Niobe would be agreeable to you I need not say how much they are at your service.

[4] My best wishes for your pleasant Journey & believe me

Your faithful Serv<sup>t</sup>.

C. R. Cockerell.
