[1] 10th Feby 1824

Dear Sir

I had the satisfaction yesterday to hear from my son of his safe arrival at Bonn & have been favored by Sir Alexander Johnston with the perusal of your letter to him. I beg to make my acknowledgements to you for your reception of the boy, and arrangements made, & to M<sup>r</sup> Lassen for his kind care of him on the journey.

I subjoin a copy of a letter I have written to my bankers and I beg you will draw on me payable at the house of Drummond [2] bankers, for £ 60, & in like manner half-yearly should this be a convenient mode

I have the pleasure to congratulate with you on the order conferred on you by the King of Prussia

I am

My dear Sir

Very Sinc<sup>l</sup>y Yours

HColebrooke
